

Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

FAST - Emerging Markets Fund

a sub-fund of Fidelity Active Strategy

Y-ACC-USD (ISIN: LU0650958159)

This fund is managed by FIL Investment Management (Luxembourg) S.A.

Objectives and Investment Policy

- Aims to provide long-term capital growth.
- At least 70% invested in shares and related instruments that provide exposure to companies that have their head office in, are listed in, or have a main part of their activity in global emerging markets. Emerging markets include (but are not limited to) those in Latin America, Asia, Africa, Eastern Europe (including Russia) and the Middle East. The fund may invest its net assets directly in China A and B shares.
- The fund will invest at least 50% of its net assets in securities that maintain sustainable characteristics. The fund promotes environmental and social characteristics pursuant to article 8 of the SFDR.
- The fund adheres to the firm-wide exclusion list (which includes cluster munitions and anti-personnel landmines) and also excludes issuers which fail to conduct their business in accordance with accepted international norms.
- Can use derivatives with the aim of risk or cost reduction or to generate additional capital or income in line with the fund's risk profile. May also make extensive use of derivatives including more complex instruments or strategies to achieve the investment objective and these may result in leverage. In such situations performance may rise or fall more than it would have done otherwise, reflecting such additional exposure.
- The fund has the freedom to invest outside its principal geographies, market sectors, industries or asset classes.
- The fund is actively managed. The Investment Manager will reference MSCI Emerging Markets Index (Net) (the "Index") by seeking to outperform it. The fund's performance should be assessed against its Index. The Investment Manager has a wide range of discretion relative to the Index. While the fund will hold assets that are components of the Index, it also is expected to invest in companies, sectors, countries and security types that have different weightings from, and may not be included in the Index in order to take advantage of investment opportunities.
- Income earned by the fund is accumulated in the share price.
- Shares can usually be bought and sold each business day of the fund.

Risk and Reward Profile

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time.
- The lowest category does not mean a "risk free" investment.
- The risk and reward profile is classified by the level of historical fluctuation of the Net Asset Values of the share class, and within this classification, categories 1-2 indicate a low level of historical fluctuations, 3-5 a medium level and 6-7 a high level.
- The value of your investment may fall as well as rise and you may get back less than you originally invested.
- The fund may invest in instruments denominated in currencies other than the fund base currency. Changes in currency exchange rates can therefore affect the value of your investment.
- Currency hedging may be used which aims to reduce the effect of such changes. However, the effects may not be completely eliminated to the degree expected.
- Liquidity is a measure of how easily an investment can be converted into cash. Under certain market conditions assets may be more difficult to value or sell at a desired price. This could affect the fund's ability to meet redemptions in a timely manner.
- Emerging markets may be more volatile and it could be harder to sell or trade securities. There may be less supervision, regulation and less well-defined procedures than in more developed countries. Emerging markets can be sensitive to political instability, which can result in greater volatility and uncertainty, subjecting the fund to the risk of losses.
- In some emerging markets, such as Russia, the safekeeping provisions for securities benefit from less governed standards.
- The fund may be exposed to the risk of financial loss if a counterparty used for derivative instruments subsequently defaults.

Charges for this fund (ISIN: LU0650958159)

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.
